Serenity Chapel, Bramcote Crematorium

Thank you for taking me to see Santa when I was little at the Royal British Legion and for making Christmas Day funny with your observations and comments. Love you, Grandpa x

Thank you for your wise words and support and for the holidays where we made memories with you, Mum and the boys. I will miss your comment, "When you are ready, dear," as who else could ask for meals or a drink in a more endearing way? x

Love you always.

WELCOME AND PRAYER

HYMN

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the works Thy hand hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed;

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze:

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing,
Sent Him to die - I scarce can take it in:
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation,
And take me home - what joy shall fill my heart!
Then shall I bow in humble adoration,
And there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!

Stuart K. Hine (1899-1989)

Thank you for your kindness and sense of humour and for always being there to mentor me to be the best I can be. I hope a full English breakfast is awaiting you at the pearly gates x

Thank you for always greeting me with a warm smile. Picking me up from nursery, going for walks around the park and the chats about how my courting was going once I got a little bigger. Many thanks x

Thank you for picking me up from school. I can still remember the smell of the old Skoda, watching TV with Mr Kipling French Fancies with Grandma and feeling loved x
