Memories

by sister, Josephine Levy

read by great-nephew, Colin Price

A kingfisher streaking across the sky,
Rainbow memories go flashing by;
Like fluffy white clouds, chase away the grey,
Comforting reminders to lighten our day.

I picture him as I pause a while,
Coppery curls, a dimpled smile;
Meddling fingers, twiddling and seeking,
Trouble finding, havoc wreaking.

A father now, such special care,
Always involved, encouraging and there.

Constant taxi, a helping hand,
Readily supportive and in demand.

A grandad, uncle and special friend,
So loving and kind, on whom we depend.

A husband again, such memories to treasure,
Comfort and support in equal measure.

Special days that we all hold dear,
Like spring flowers that bloom from year to year.

Let's all remember, in our own unique way,
Like well-trodden paths, in our hearts he will stay.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.
