'Jerusalem'

And did those feet in ancient times
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
on England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
among those dark satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
till we have built Jerusalem
in England's green and pleasant land.

Offertory Hymn

by Susan Boyle

Then sings my soul
My saviour God to thee
How great thou art, How great thou art.
Then Sings my Soul
My Saviour God to Thee
How great thou art, how great thou art

Then sings my soul
My saviour God to thee
How great thou art, How great thou art.
Then Sings my Soul
My Saviour God to Thee
How great thou art, how great thou art

Then sings my soul
My saviour God to thee
How great thou art, How great thou art.
Then Sings my Soul
My Saviour God to Thee
How great thou art, how great thou art
How great thou art, how great thou art.

Poem

One night I had a dream.
I dreamed I was walking along the beach with God.
And across the sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand;
one belonged to me and the other to God.
When the last scene of my life flashed before us,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at times along the path of life
there was only one set of footprints.
I also noticed that it happened
at the very lowest and saddest times of my life.
This really bothered me and I questioned God about it.
'God, you said that once I decided to follow you,
you would walk with me all the way.
But I noticed that during the most troublesome times
in my life, there is only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why, in times when I needed you most,
you would leave me.'
God replied, 'My precious, precious child,
I love you and I would never leave you.
During your times of trial and suffering,
when you see only one set of footprints,
it was then that I carried you.'

Bidding Prayers

read by Sharon

Response: Hear our prayers.

Hail Mary full of grace; the Lord is with you; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.
