WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

POEM

Farewell My Friends

It was beautiful, as long as it lasted,
The journey of my life.
I have no regrets whatsoever
Save the pain I'll leave behind.
Those dear hearts who love and care...
And the heart strings pulling at the heart and soul...
The strong arms that held me up
When my own strength let me down.
At every turning of my life I came across good friends,
Friends who stood by me
Even when the time raced me by.
Farewell, farewell my friends,
I smile and bid you goodbye.
No, shed no tears for I need them not,
All I need is your smile.
If you feel sad do think of me
For that's what I'll like.
When you live in the hearts of those you love
Remember then, you never die.

POEM

Memories Keep You Close

Memories of your smiling face
Are with me every day.
I treasure them with all my heart
Since you have gone away.

The empty space you've left behind
No one can ever fill,
For it belongs to only you
And it always will.

The sweet sound of your laughter
I hear once in a while,
It echoes in my head
And brings a little smile.

For since you have been taken
To pleasant pastures new,
My heart clings to each memory
That I hold, of love, for you.

Your sparkling eyes, your kindness,
Your special little ways,
Are thoughts so poignant I recall
To help the longest days.
