Poem

Dad

by Judy Burnette

Dad...so many images come to mind
whenever I speak your name;
It seems without you in my life
things have never been the same.

What happened to those lazy days
when I was just a child?
When my life was consumed in you
in your love, and in your smile.

What happened to all those times
when I always looked to you?
No matter what happened in my life
you could make my grey skies blue.

Dad, some days I hear your voice
and turn to see your face;
Yet in my turning...it seems the sound has been erased.

Dad, who will I turn to for answers
when life does not make sense?
Who will be there to hold me close
when the pieces just don't fit.

Oh, Dad, if I could turn back time
and once more hear your voice;
I'd tell you that out of all the dads
you would still be my choice.

Please always know I love you and no one can take your place;
Years may come and go
but your memory will never be erased.

Today, Jesus, as You are listening
in your home above;
Would you go and find my dad
and give him all my love?

Blessing of Rest

Poem

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
don't remember me with tears,
remember all the laughter
we've shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented
that my life it was worthwhile,
knowing that as I passed along the way,
I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street
and you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
only half a step behind.

So please don't be unhappy
just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you
each morning, noon and night.
