The Tide Recedes
by Ursula (Pankow) Delfs

The tide recedes,
But leaves behind
Bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down,
But gentle warmth
Still lingers on the land.
The music stops,
And yet it echoes on
In sweet refrains.
For every joy that passes,
Something beautiful remains.

Your Mother Is Always With You
by Jane Jenkins Herlong

Your mother is always with you ...
She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street.
She's the smell of soap in your freshly laundered socks.
She's the cool hand on your brow when you're not well.
Your mother lives inside your laughter.
She's crystalised in every teardrop ...
She's the place you came from, your first home,
She's the map you follow with every step you take.
She's your first love and your first heartbreak
And nothing on earth can separate you;
Not time, not space, not even death
Will ever separate you from your mother...
You carry her inside of you.
