Welcome and Opening Words

Two Dead Boys

One fine day, in the middle of the night,
Two dead boys got up to fight.

Back to back they faced each other,
Drew their swords and shot each other.
One was blind and the other couldn't see,
So they chose a dummy for a referee.

The blind men went to see fair play,
And the dumb man went to shout 'Hooray'.

And the paralysed donkey passing by,
He kicked the blind man in the eye,
Knocked him through a nine-inch wall
Into a dry ditch and drowned them all.

A deaf policeman heard the noise
And went to arrest the two dead boys.

If you don't believe this story's true,
Ask the blind man; he saw it too.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
