WELCOME AND OPENING WORDS

POEM

The sun still rises in the east
And darkness falls at night.
But nothing now seems the same
Each day is not as bright.

The birds still sing, the flowers grow
And the breeze still whispers too
But it will never be the same
In this world without you.

It's so sad that you had to go,
Your leaving caused much pain.
But you were very special and Earth's loss is Heaven's gain.

Until we meet again!

REMEMBERING HARRY

VISUAL TRIBUTE AND REFLECTION
Thank You For Being Our Dad
by John Barker

POEM

I'd like to leave but daffodils
to mark my little way,
To leave but tulips red and white
behind me as I stray;
I'd like to pass away from earth
and feel I'd left behind
But roses and forget-me-nots for all who come to find.

I'd like to sow the barren spots
with all the flowers of earth,
To leave a path where those who come should find but gentle mirth;
And when at last I'm called upon to join the heavenly throng
I'd like to feel along my way
I'd left no sign of wrong.

And yet the cares are many
and the hours of toil are few;
There is not time enough on earth
for all I'd like to do;
But, having lived and having toiled,
I'd like the world to find
Some little touch of beauty that my soul had left behind.
