Poem

When I Am Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget, if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken, Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay,

And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west,
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.

Make Me A Channel Of Your Peace
by Katherine Jenkins

Reading

Ecclesiastes, Chapter 3: verses 1-8

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

Wonderful World by André Rieu

Poem

Remember Me by Lynn New

No pain beyond, no tears, no fear, No thoughts of death for I'm still near.
No hugs I know, nor sweet caress,
But I'm still close to love and bless.

No quiet word, nor gentle touch,
But don't despair - I love you much.
No gesture kind, to show I care;
The veil's drawn, but I'm still there.

Grieve not too long - but look around,
In earthly things I shall be found.
A falling leaf, a growing tree,
In every breeze you will feel me.

I walk in life - death holds no pain,
Be reassured, we'll meet again.

Collective Act

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
