Farewell

As we reflect we shall hear the sound of a steam locomotive as it passes by and whistles.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Last Journey

Timothy Coote

There is a train at the station with a seat reserved just for me,
I'm excited about its destination as I've heard it sets you free.

The trials and tribulations, the pain and stress we breathe,
Don't exist where I am going, only happiness, I believe.

I hope that you will be there to wish me on my way,
It's not a journey you can join in, it's not your time today.
There'll be many destinations, some are happy, some are sad,
Each one a brief reminder of the great times that we've had.

Many friends I know are waiting who took an earlier train
To greet and reassure me that nothing has really changed.
We'll take the time together to catch up on the past,
To build a new beginning, one that will always last.

One day you'll take your journey on the train, just like me,
And I promise that I'll be there at the station, and you will see,
That life is just a journey enriched by those you meet,
No-one can take that from you, it's always yours to keep.

But now as no seat is vacant you will have to muddle through,
Make sure you fulfil your ambitions as you know I'll be watching you.
And if there's an occasion to mention who you knew,
Speak kindly of that person, as one day it will be you.

Now I can't except this ending, and as it's time for me to leave,
Please make haste to the reception to enjoy my drinks, they're free!
