POEM

A Secret Legacy

You have gone! But I am rich because you left to me,
For my comfort and my joy, a secret legacy.
A legacy of memory more precious, I declare,
Than a fortune in the bank or diamonds to wear.
O! These lovely memories, I count them one by one,
Like a beaded rosary, each day when work is done.
I turn my back upon the world and, with a quiet mind,
Open up my treasure box to see what I can find.
Winter - glow of lamplight and the bliss of fireside ease.
Summer - working in the garden. Tea beneath the trees.
Sunday's, birthdays, holidays and anniversaries.
Thank you, dear, for leaving me so rich in memories.

WELCOME AND OPENING WORDS

POEM

Search

by Rachel Swete McNamara

I go to seek you deep within the wood,

But no! You are not there.

That shadow I see is not your hair.

I go to see you on the moorland wide,

But no! I do but dream and what I thought your voice, a singing stream.

I go to seek you on the silent hills,

And lo! I find it true that wheresoever I am, there are you.

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

THE LORD'S PRAYER

with Handel's 'Largo' playing softly in the background

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be Thy name;

Thy Kingdom come;

Thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,

the power and the glory,

for ever and ever.

Amen.
