WELCOME AND OPENING PRAYER

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

1 Thessalonians, Chapter 4: verses 13-18

Reader: A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians.

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope.

We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. So, we shall stay with the Lord for ever.

With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

At the end of the reading:

The word of the lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

The background of the page is a soft-focus photograph of a natural scene. In the foreground, there are tall, green reeds or grasses. A river flows through the middle ground, reflecting the light. The background is filled with lush green trees and a bright, hazy sky, suggesting a peaceful, sunlit day.

THE PSALM
The Lord's My Shepherd

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want. He makes me down to lie
In pastures green. He leadeth me the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make,
Within the paths of righteousness, e'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill.
For thou art with me and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes,
My head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me.
And in God's house for ever more my dwelling-place shall be.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Jesus said: 'I am the resurrection and the life;
whoever believes in me will never die.' Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John, Chapter 21: verses 9-14.

All: Glory to you, Lord.

As soon as the disciples came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

At the end of the reading:

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
