Welcome and Opening Words

Poem

read by Sally's granddaughters, Amy and Abby
written by Sally's daughter, Lorraine

Can you remember me inside your mind
Before fog descended and the world was still kind?

Can you remember me inside your heart
Before time and disease slowly ripped you apart?

Can you remember me inside your soul
Before happiness, the past and your memories it stole?

In all of those places I'll hold you so close,
In all of those places I'll feel you the most.

I will not forget, nor will I forgive,
But I'll hold you inside me as long as I live.

Only You
by The Platters

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
