Poem The Ship

I am standing upon that foreshore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch her until at length she hangs down like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come down and mingle at the horizon.
Then someone at my side says: "There! She's gone!"
'Gone where?'
'Gone from my sight, that's all.'
She is just as large in mast and spar and hull as ever she was when she left my side; just as able to bear her load of living freight to her place of destination.
Her diminished size is in me, not in her.
And just at that moment when someone at my side says,
'There! She's gone!' there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout:
'Here she comes!'
And that is dying.
