Introduction and Welcome

Poem

I am I, and you are you:
whatever we were to each other, that we still are.

Call me by my old familiar name,
speak to me in the easy way which you always used,

Put no difference into your tone,
wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be forever the same as it always was.

Let it be spoken without an effort,
without the ghost of a shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant.

It is the same as it always was;
there is absolutely unbroken continuity.

I am but waiting for you,
for an interval,
just around the corner.

All is well.

A Tribute to Maureen

Poem

The tide recedes, but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.
The music stops, yet echoes on in sweet, soulful refrains.
For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
