A TRIBUTE TO BERNARD

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

POEM

Our Dad, Our Grandad

It doesn't matter who he was, but rather who is the Dad we love so much.

I say 'is' not 'was' because he will always 'be' our rock, our Dad,
the best Grandad ever.

He will always be right by our sides guiding us, laughing with us, adding sarcastic comments at every turn.

He was responsible for so much as we have heard today.

He was by my side when:
I went to my first Forest match,
I got my first car,
When I bought my first house,
When I got married,
When I needed a loan,
When things needed fixing,
Sage advice from the giant in our lives.

I just never got to say enough thank yous for his strong guidance, influence and love.

This sums it up really...

As I look back over the years,
I find myself wondering ...
Did we remember to thank you enough
For all you have done for us?
For all the times you were by our sides
To help and support us,
To celebrate our successes,
To understand our problems and accept our defeats?

For teaching us by your wonderful example,
The value of hard work, good judgement, courage and integrity?
Did we ever thank you enough, for the sacrifices you made
To let us have the very best
And for all the simple things
Like laughter, smiles and the good times we shared?

If we did forget to show our gratitude for all the things you did, Grandad
We are thanking you now.
And we are hoping you knew all along,
How much you mean to us and how much we all love you.

SEE YOU LATER ALLIGATOR,
IN A WHILE CROCODILE.
WHAT'S YOUR NUMBER, CUCUMBER?
