Memories of Linda's Life

Poem

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So he put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me."

With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away,
And although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard-working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Poem

Thank You, Nan

Gone but not forgotten,
One day here, now sadly passed.
Dear Nan, you really lived a life,
Right to the very last.
Sadly no more hugging,
No more chats and no more tea,
But you gave me such a wondrous gift,
Encouraged me to just to be me.
For that I'm ever grateful,
Always your biggest fan,
To the woman who just made me smile,
I say thank you, dearest Nan.

Poem

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain;
He knew you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
