Bill's Life

Poem

If I Should Go

If I should go before the rest of you,
Break not a flower, nor inscribe a stone,
Nor, when I'm gone, speak in a Sunday voice,
But be the usual selves that I have known.

Weep if you must - parting is hell,
But life goes on, so sing as well.

Joyce Grenfell (1910-1979)

Music for Reflection

Don't Cry For Me by Libby Allen

Poem

When I Am Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget, if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken,
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way,
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay.

And come in the shade of evening,
When the sun paints the sky in the west,
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.
