Insomnia

by Pam Ayres

I just can't get to sleep tonight, no matter what I do,
I'm restless in our bed, I fuss and fidget next to you,
I rather think the reason is, I fell into the trap
Of having quite a heavy lunch and then a little nap!

It wasn't very long, a little doze, the way you do,
And no way was it longer than about an hour. Or two.

And then, when I woke up, well it was suppertime you see,
I did eat quite a lot again, between you and me,
I rather overdid it and I dined just like a toff,
And watching television later on... I nodded off.

It wasn't very long, a little fade, a little snooze,
My eyes were closed... but I was concentrating on the news!
