WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

POEM

The Measure Of A Man

read by Kelly

The measure of a man is not determined
By his show of outward strength,
Or the volume of his voice, or the thunder of his actions,
Or of his intellect or academic abilities.
It is seen rather in terms of love that he has
For his family and for everyone,
The strength of his commitments,
The genuineness of his friendships,
The sincerity of his purpose,
The quiet courage of his convictions.
The fun, laughter, joy and happiness he gives
To his family and to others.
His love of life, his patience and his honesty
And his contentment with what he has.

Mod Life

Walking, talking, sat in the sun,
Perrys, parkas, 'I Am One'.
Friendship, mates, laugh and sing,
Girls, music, clubs and dancing.
Loafers, shermans, button-downs,
All dressed up to go to town.
Hanging out in cafs and shops,
The action then would never stop.
The endless days at the beach,
The beer you drunk, the food you ate.
The people looked on and laughed,
Just a craze to fade and pass.
But then you didn't really care,
Just let the wind flow through your hair.
Doing then what you wanted to do,
With a sense of freedom to pull you through.
A time when new friends were met,
A time that you will never forget.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

I'm There Inside Your Heart

Read by Emily Luckcuck

Right now I'm in a different place and though we seem apart,
I'm closer than I ever was, I'm there inside your heart.
I'm with you when you greet each day and while the sun shines bright.
I'm there to share the sunsets, too, I'm with you every night.
I'm with you when the times are good to share a laugh or two,
And if a tear should start to fall, I'll still be there for you.
And when that day arrives that we no longer are apart,
I'll smile and hold you close to me, forever in my heart.
