

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
MICHAEL JOHN REDGATE

17th April 1961 - 26th October 2019

Bramcote Crematorium, Reflection Chapel
Tuesday 26th November 2019 at 2.15 pm

'Someone once told me that time was a predator that stalked us all our lives. I'd rather believe that time is a companion who goes with us on the journey and allows us to cherish every moment... because they'll never come again.'

Captain Picard

A photograph of a dirt path winding through a dense forest. The path is covered in fallen leaves and branches. The trees are tall and thin, with green foliage. The lighting is soft and diffused, creating a misty or ethereal atmosphere. The text is overlaid on the center of the image.

WELCOME AND OPENING WORDS

HYMN

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings:

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset, and the morning
That brightens up the sky:

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one:

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well:

Cecil Frances Humphreys Alexander (1818-1895)

A soft-focus photograph of a river or stream. The water is calm, reflecting the surrounding greenery. On the left, a tree with dark branches and green leaves leans over the water. The right bank is covered in dense, tall grasses and reeds. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural, with a warm, slightly hazy light.
