Bible Reading

Revelation, Chapter 21: verses 1-7

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth;
for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city,
the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,
'See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.'

And the one who was seated on the throne said,
'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said,
'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.'

Then he said to me, 'It is done!

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.
To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

Those who conquer will inherit these things, and I will be their God and they will be my children.'

Prayers

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Angels

*We will now proceed to Nottingham Road Cemetery
for the burial.*

We walked the road of life together day by day and I loved you every step of the way.
You may have gone ahead but I will love you forever and always, one day we will meet again and pick up where we left off... true love never dies.
Your spirit may fly with the butterflies protected by angels but your heart beats within me, uniting us forever and always...
