Poem

God's Garden
by Melissa Shreve

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
With the help of his angels, they
Flew you to your heavenly place.

God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills too hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace be thine.'

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Your time with us is cherished,
You are loved more than you'll ever know,
But the angels have asked you to join them
And now it's time to go.

And now you're reunited
With your beloved brother, Leigh,
You can laugh and dance and sing once more
Now your troubled soul is free.

Hymn

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like me his praise should sing:
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour
To our fathers in distress;
Praise him still the same for ever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless:
Alleluia, alleluia!
Glorious in his faithfulness.

Angels, help us to adore him;
Ye behold him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before him,
Dwellers all in time and space.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise with us the God of grace.
