WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

POEM

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Think of me as one at rest,
For me you should not weep.
I have no pain, no troubled thoughts,
For I am just asleep.

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss me, but let me go.

Remember me with happy thoughts,
With laughter in the air.
Remember me, the me you knew,
With smiles and not despair.

Remember all the happy times,
The things we used to do,
The games we played, the funeral we shared;
Remember, for it's true,

For though my body now has gone,
Still alive within your mind
Are all those happy memories
That I have left behind.

JOYCE'S LIFE

VISUAL TRIBUTE
To The Way We Were- Barbra Streisand

POEM

Feel no guilt in laughter, she knows how much you care,
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she's not there to share.
You cannot grieve forever, she wouldn't want you to,
She'd hope that you would carry on, the way you always do.
So talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings her back as clearly as though she still were here
And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.
For if you keep those moments you will never be apart
And she will live forever, locked safe within your heart.
