OPENING WORDS

TRIBUTE

POEM
Mum
written by Sally

Our mum, what can I say?
She was great in every way.
Mum, friend and granny too,
Always there's to look after you.

Cuddles when you're sick and plasters when you fell,
Barely a cross word unless we didn't behave well.
Childhood days filled with happy times,
Then we grew up and made our own lives.

Mum became Granny, and she loved it!
Excited when the grandkids came to visit;
Day trips out and ice cream galore,
Baking again for all to adore.

Then the time came and you got sick,
We didn't know what was coming, but you did.
You fought so hard, you were so brave,
I'll remember your last breath the rest of my days.

So sleep well, Mum, sleep tight.
I love you always, good night.

POEM
Smile

Smiling is infectious,
You catch it like the flu.

When someone smiled at me today,
I started smiling too.

I walked around the corner
And someone saw me grin.

When he smiled, I realised
I had passed it on to him.

I thought about the smile
And then realised its worth.

A single smile like mine
Could travel round the earth.

So, if you feel a smile begin,
Don't leave it undetected.

Start an epidemic
And get the world infected.
