Panda's Poem

No matter how many miles you travel or how many bridges you cross,
Your head can never prepare for an unexpected loss,
It reminds us of our journeys on this physical plane,
And that we all have demons that thrive off our pain,
They're easy to manage when only one to fight,
But some of us are ganged up on so our soul takes flight,
But the defeat was with your vessel, your spirit lives on,
Not just in the spiritual world, but through the beauty you created with Twon.
