She Is Gone

read by Sally Bailey

You can shed tears that she is gone,
Or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her and only that she is gone,
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

POEM

Feel No Guilt In Laughter

read by Viv Clement

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care,
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to,
She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly re-capture a time, an hour a day,
That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here
And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.
For if you keep those moments you will never be apart
And she will live forever, locked safe within your heart.
