If Tomorrow Never Comes by Ronan Keating

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For ever and ever.
Amen.

When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile

Forget unhappy times I have lived through
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember instead times of fun

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
But lived, before the close of the day

Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay

And think, in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west,
Of good times we shared together
And remember only my best
