Poem

The Way

written by Harold Loseby

The light is bright that follows me,
Each day and through the night.
And by my side shines always,
In all... my guiding light.

It's beam will drench a dreary day,
And gild the steps I need to see.
Through chasm dark it brightly glows,
Illuminates and comforts me.

No demon foul, nor dark deceit,
Outstare's its powerful beam
It follows faithful, gives me strength
Like an ever flowing stream.

A torch for me to proudly carry,
That never weighs me down.
An aura seen by no-one.
I wear it like a crown.

Should one day it's brightness dim
While stuttering steps I make.
I'll know it's course is truly run,
And should I not awake.

I'll leave this light for others,
And hope they take good care.
To keep it bright, and pass it on,
For everyone to share.
