WORDS OF WELCOME

POEM

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song;
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin
Until the day comes we're together again."

REFLECTION

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend.

He referred to the dates on the tombstone
from the beginning to the end.

He noted that first came the date of birth and spoke the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all
was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time
that they spent alive on earth and now, only those who loved them know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not how much we own:
the cars, the house, the cash.

What matters is how we live and love
and how we spend our dash.
