Eulogy

Poem

Remembering Dad – by Vonnie

When Dad was younger, some years ago,
The world was a different place.
You kept a stiff upper lip and never cried,
Showing no weakness whilst running life's race.

It was tough to be a father back then,
Having to wear many different faces;
One minute the ambitious, stern worker,
Then caring father tying his kids' laces.

Dad, you worked so long and so hard for us,
Helping to keep our little family secure.
You spent many a long, busy hour
Keeping the wolf away from our door.

With kind but firm hands, you and Mum guided us
Through life's sun and rain and sleet.
You taught us well and made us strong,
So we could stand on our own two feet.

Thank you, Dad, for all that you've done.
We're so sad we must now say goodbye.
We thought we had all the time in the world,
But must now send our thoughts to the sky.

We hope you knew that we loved you,
Though we didn't always find time to say.
We'll remember the laughter and fun times,
When we shared many a wonderful day.

We'll carry those memories in our hearts forever
And do all we can to make you proud.
Our tears will dry and our hearts will mend
And the sun will shine through the cloud.

God bless you, Dad, may you rest in peace.
Mum's there waiting for you; she's always been near.
Be together again, find the love that you shared
And be with the one you always held dear.

Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Commendation

Minister: Let us commend Peter to the mercy of God, our maker and redeemer.

All: Peter has fallen asleep in the peace of Christ.
We entrust him, with faith and hope in everlasting life,
To the love and mercy of our Father
And surround him with our love and prayers. Amen.
