Words
from Ashley

Your passing destroyed me in ways
I can't even begin to comprehend...
Yet I do know, without question,
That it's a level of devastation
That won't "heal" in this lifetime...
Or in any lifetime that contains your absence.

There will never be a time
Where I will be done
Grieving you,
Or learning new ways
To somehow
Exist without you.

Poem
Dad's Legacy

Dad, you meant the world to us, Your love, your laugh, your touch. We'll miss your stories, your gentle smile, Your presence made our lives worthwhile.

Though you're gone, you're in our hearts, We'll never forget the bond we chart. You taught us strength, you taught us grace, In every memory, you'll find your place.

So rest in peace, dear Dad, we say, We'll carry your love every single day. Though we part with tears in our eyes, Your spirit in us forever lies.

Poem

My Lost Love
from Louise

I have only just lost you; the pain is hard to bear.
Do I have to go through life knowing you're not there?
Please, someone explain to me why he had to go.
Are there any reasons, I really need to know?
I sit here and remember all the lovely times we shared,
the talks, the laughter, of everyone you cared.
I am told the pain will ease in time and I will think of him without a tear, but that will be impossible as I need to have him here.
He was my very world, my ever-guiding star.
Just kiss me softly on the cheek and tell me where you are.
