Welcome & Prayer

Hymn

We plough the fields, and scatter
the good seed on the land,
but it is fed and watered
by God's almighty hand:
he sends the snow in winter,
the warmth to swell the grain,
the breezes, and the sunshine,
and soft, refreshing rain.

*All good gifts around us
are sent from heaven above;
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
for all his love.*

He only is the maker
of all things near and far;
he paints the wayside flower,
he lights the evening star;
the winds and waves obey him,
by him the birds are fed;
much more to us, his children,
he gives our daily bread.

All good gifts...

We thank thee then, O Father,
for all things bright and good,
the seed-time and the harvest,
our life, our health, our food.

Accept the gifts we offer
for all thy love imparts,
and, what thou most desirest,
our humble, thankful hearts.

All good gifts...

Address

Prayers, concluding with The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

A steam locomotive, numbered 7812, is pulling a train through a wooded area. The locomotive is black with a red front and is emitting a large plume of white steam. The train is moving along a track that curves to the right. The background is filled with trees and foliage, suggesting a rural or forested setting.

Hymn

For the beauty of the earth,
for the beauty of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies,
Christ our God, to thee we raise this our sacrifice of praise.

For the beauty of each hour
of the day and of the night,
hill and vale, and tree and flower,
sun and moon, and stars of light,
Christ our God...

For the joy of human love,
brother, sister, parent, child,
friends on earth, and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild,
Christ our God...

For each perfect gift of thine
to our race so freely given,
graces human and divine,
flowers of earth and buds of heaven,
Christ our God...

Blessing

All are welcome to join us for light refreshments and continue the celebration of Tony's life amongst family and friends at Cherhill Village Hall.

We would like to say a huge thank you for everyone's love and support since Tony's passing. We have heard so many happy stories & treasured memories from all of his family & friends which has helped us to smile during this difficult time. Our consolation is to know that he is no longer suffering and is now in Heaven re-united with his beloved late wife Sheila (Our She).

RIP Dad, Grandad, Great Grandad & Brother. We love & miss you.
