WORDS OF WELCOME

POEM
Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo, whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

POEM

A miner stood at the golden gate,
his head bowed low.
He meekly asked the man of fate
the way that he should go.

“What have you done”, St Peter asked,
“To gain admission here?”
“I merely mined for coal”, he said,
“for many a year.”

St Peter opened wide the gate and gently tolled the bell.
“Come and choose your harp, my lad,
you’ve had your share of hell.”
