

You are invited to a celebration of Neil's life
after the service in The Mews
at the Exeter Golf and Country Club,
Topsham Rd, Exeter EX2 7AE.

Neil Royston

4th December 1939 – 6th June 2019

Exeter Crematorium, 17th June 2.30pm

Order of Service

On beginning 'Chorus of the Hebrew Slaves' : Verdi

The Welcome : Chas Deacon

A family tribute to Neil, a portrait in words.

'Morning has broken' : Sung by Liz Berisford

A reading on The Way and Character of Love

Now I will show you the most excellent way! The Way of Love. Love is endlessly patient, and most kind. It does not envy, nor does it boast; it is not wrongly proud. Then Love does not dishonour others and is not self-seeking.

This love is not easily angered but is endlessly forgiving, for it keeps no record of our wrongs.

Love does not delight when evil prevails but rejoices when the truth wins through. For love, Neil's love has always sought to protect, has always trusted in you, always hoped for you..... always endured alongside of you.

Indeed, love never fails...for love is strong, stronger than death....and it will not come to an end.

Now these three remain: faith, hope and love.

But the greatest of these is love.

The Farewell with words of commendation and committal

Words of thanksgiving for Neil's life and strength for his family

As we leave the chapel
'New York, New York' : Frank Sinatra

Gifts in loving memory of Neil are for the work of ELF and The Renal Unit at the Exeter RD&E Hospital by retiring collection or by sending to;

M. Sillifant & Sons,
19-20 Holloway Street
Exeter EX2 4DJ