Gone Too Soon

Words cannot describe the loss I feel
Saying farewell to you,
But heaven chose to give you wings
And now it's time you flew.

I wish that we could have more time,
That God had let you stay.
Forever would not be long enough,
But I would take one day.

I wish I had just one more chance
To see that tender smile,
To laugh with you again, my dear,
Just for a little while.

Gone too soon, but not forgotten,
Forever you will remain
My guiding light, my shining star,
Until I see your face again.

A photograph of a garden scene. In the foreground, there is a large, vibrant flower bed with various colors including red, pink, orange, and white. The flowers are densely packed. In the background, there is a garden bench with a decorative, circular backrest. The bench is made of metal and has a light-colored seat. The garden is surrounded by green grass and various plants. The overall scene is bright and colorful.

POEM

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And now with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared;
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's part of the master plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sad at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
Laugh at the things we used to do;
Miss me, but let me go.
