

A man with a goatee and sunglasses, wearing a tan t-shirt and plaid shorts, is kneeling on a gravel bank. He is smiling and holding a large, silver fish with both hands. The fish has a dark dorsal fin and a lighter belly. In the background, there is a concrete dam or weir structure across a river, with lush green trees and a clear blue sky.

Leisure

What is this life if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare.

No time to stand beneath the boughs
And stare as long as sheep or cows.

No time to see, when woods we pass,
Where squirrels hide their nuts in grass.

No time to see, in broad daylight,
Streams full of stars, like skies at night.

No time to turn at Beauty's glance,
And watch her feet, how they can dance.

No time to wait till her mouth can
Enrich that smile her eyes began.

A poor life this is if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare.

Committal and Farewell

Farewell My Friends

It was beautiful as long as it lasted,
The journey of my life.

I have no regrets whatsoever,
Save the pain I'll leave behind.

Those dear hearts who love and care...

And the strings pulling at the heart and soul...

The strong arms that held me up
When my own strength let me down.

At every turning of my life I came across good friends,

Friends who stood by me,

Even when the time raced me by.

Farewell, farewell, my friends

I smile and bid you goodbye.

No, shed no tears for I need them not,

All I need is your smile.

If you feel sad, do think of me,

For that's what I'll like.

When you live in the hearts

Of those you love, remember then

You never die.
