THE DEFINITIVE JOURNEY

Juan Ramon Jimenez

... and I will leave,
But the birds will stay, singing:
and my garden will stay, with its green tree,
with its water well.
Many afternoons the sky will be blue and placid,
and the bells in the belfry will chime,
as they are chiming this very afternoon.

The people who have loved me will pass away,
and the town will burst anew every year
But my spirit will always wander, nostalgic,
in the same peaceful corner of my garden.

COMMITTAL

CLOSING WORDS

A REFLECTION ON AN AUTUMN DAY

Anon

I took up a handful of grain and, letting it slip flowing through my fingers,

And I said to myself, 'This is what it is all about.'

There is no longer any room for pretence.

At harvest time the essence is revealed,

The straw and chaff are set aside, they have done their job.

The grain alone matters – sacks of pure gold.

So it is when a person dies the essence of their life is revealed.

At the moment of death a person's character stands out;

Happy for the person who has forged it well over the years.

Then it will not be the great achievement that will count,

Nor how much money or possessions a person has amassed.

These, like the straw and the chaff, will be left behind.

It is what they have made of themselves that will matter.

Death can take away from us what we have,

But it cannot rob us of who we are.
