PRAYER

by Sylvia

Dear Lord

Please take John, our dear Elaine's husband and Betty's son, father of Matthew and Rebecca, grandpa of Ella, Theodore and Henrietta, back into your arms, let him rest with you. Whatever they were to each other, they still are, let us speak of him the way we always have done. Laugh as we always have at his jokes and long talks, life means all it ever did. Why should he be out of sight or out of mind? He'll be somewhere near waiting out there till we meet again, saying take care of one another and I'll just do a spot of fishing till then.

CLOSING WORDS

PRAYER

by Betty

Find him by the river Lord, fishing rod in hand
With a contented look upon his face
His face was full of love
And his heart so good and kind
He leaves a hole in my heart, for a life so cut short
But he lived it to the full, and left memories that will never die
Love mum
