WELCOME AND OPENING WORDS

Malcolm Barham, Civil Celebrant

A bouquet of pink roses is shown in the upper right corner of the page. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a background of green leaves and stems. The bouquet is placed on a light-colored wooden surface, which is visible at the bottom right. The overall lighting is soft and natural, highlighting the delicate petals of the roses.

POEM

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there; I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glint on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am in gentle autumn rain,

When you awaken in the morning hush
I am swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the star-shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there,
I did not die.

Mary Elizabeth Frye

POEM
I'm Free

Don't grieve for me now that I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me.
I took His hand, I heard Him call,
Then turned and bid farewell to all

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found my peace at close of day.

If my parting left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened deep with sorrow,
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savoured much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wants me now, He set me free.
