A SAD POEM ABOUT A PAIR OF FOOTBALL BOOTS

by Brian Tuck

I had a pair of football boots
Some thirty years ago,
I ask my mother where they've gone,
She says she doesn't know.

I had them at eleven-plus,
All dubbiny and new,
I took them on the 19 bus
And played in them at School.

Then on to University,
'Twixt lecture hall and town,
I had my trusty football boots
On underneath my gown.

Life's great adventure: marriage, sons,
I tried to do my bit,
Stayed faithful to my football boots
(By now they didn't fit).

And now I know they've gone for good
I cannot stand aloof,
I mourn this loss of football boots,
Those symbols of my youth.

The family would like to thank everyone for their kind words and support at this sad time.

All are welcome for light refreshment at The Wheelhouse Pub, Russell Drive, Wollaton NG8 2BH.
