WORDS OF WELCOME

POEM

A Life Well Lived

A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace,
From someone who has made our world
A brighter, better place.

It's filled with moments sweet and sad,
With smiles and sometimes tears,
With friendships formed and good times shared,
And laughter through the years.

A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure,
A living, lasting memory
Our grateful hearts will treasure.

REFLECTION

READING

The precious moments of life are too rare, too valuable to be forgotten when they have passed;
we should hoard them as a miser hoards his gold,
and bring them to light and rejoice over them often.
We should all of us have a treasury of happy memories to sustain us when life is unbearably cruel, to brighten the gloom a little,
to be stars shining through the darkness.

Alfred Wainwright

COMMITTAL

PRAYERS AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Led by Liz Phillips

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
