*Our memories build a special bridge
When loved ones have to part,
To help us feel were with them still
And soothe a grieving heart.
They span the years and warm our lives,
Preserving ties that bind.
Our memories build a special bridge
And bring us peace of mind.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

COMMENDATION AND FAREWELL

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

CLOSING MUSIC

I Love How You Love Me - Paris Sisters

HYMN

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings:
All things bright and beautiful...

The purple headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning
That brightens up the sky:
All things bright and beautiful...

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one:
All things bright and beautiful...

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well:

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful
The Lord God made them all.*

TRIBUTE TO ERIC

HYMN

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnishèd
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

A LETTER FROM HEAVEN

read by Lauren

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you loved me,
As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me, too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart!

OUR GRANDAD'S GARDEN

chosen by Natasha

Our grandad kept a garden,
A garden of the heart;
He planted all the good things
That gave our lives their start.

He turned us to the sunshine
And encouraged us to dream:
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.

And when the winds and rains came,
He protected us enough;
But not too much, he knew we'd need
To stand up strong and tough.

His constant good example
Always taught us right from wrong;
Markers for our pathway
To last our whole lives long.

We are our grandad's garden,
We are his legacy,
And we hope today he feels the love
Reflected back from us.

*Thank you, Grandad,
We all love you.*

'Eric', 'Dad', 'Grandad', 'Ic', 'Gramps' and 'Pops' are the first names I can remember him being called by; since then I've heard 'role model', 'father figure', 'legend', 'hero', 'idol', 'the main man' and many more, plus the names I've heard Mommor call him, but I will leave them to your imagination!

All of these show what kind of person our grandad was to us and many more, always being a true gent and looking out for others along the way.

He would always have words of wisdom and somehow always point us in the right direction when we went for advice, no matter the problem.

He will have taught many people many things along many different paths.

A few things he taught me about life that stand out are:

- 1) You earn what you deserve
- 2) You work to live, not live to work
And last, but not least...
- 3) Spend it while you can because you can't take it with you

All of these show the hard-working, 'never give up' attitude he taught us along the way, which we will never forget and I hope he will be proud of us all for doing so.

Through the years we all knew his rock was Mommor, as was hers in him, but she always wore the trousers because before any major decision he would say, "You'd better check with your mommor", knowing we would always go ahead with what he had told us, only to blame him if it went wrong, but little did that happen.

A marriage of 55 years shows the love our grandparents had for each other, which also set the foundations for all of us to grow our families.

Eric, Dad, Gramps...

You leave behind a wife, three daughters, seven grandkids and five great-grandkids, all of which will never forget you, so please continue to guide us and help us along our ways. We owe our worlds to you and I hope we can make you proud.

We all love you, Gramps. Good night, God bless 365 x
