The Real Thing

Welcome and Introduction

Poem

Golden Memories

read by Lee Hunter

They say memories are golden,
well, maybe that is true.
I never wanted memories,
I only wanted you.
A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
you never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place
no one else could fill.
If tears could build a stairway and heartache make a lane.
I'd walk the path to Heaven and bring you back again.
Our time on earth has ended
And nothing seems the same.
But when God calls me to be with you
Our love will live again.

A Tribute to Annette

Poem

read by Deborah Bennett

We thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new,
we thought about you yesterday,
and days before that too.

We think of you in silence, and we often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories and a picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake with which we will never part, Heaven has you safe but We have you in our hearts.

We set you free to dance forever more
You remain forever in our hearts.
