POEM

Crossing The Bar
by Tennyson
read by Piers Wainwright

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

COMMITTAL AND CLOSING WORDS

CLOSING POEM

I have seen Death too often
To believe in death.
For it is like arriving at the end of the day,
Turning off the engine, switching off the lights
And gently closing the door;
Then walking along the path, up the steps
And into the light of home.
