POEM

Death Is Nothing At All
by Henry Scott Holland
read by Laura, Jean's granddaughter

Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other,
That we are still.
Call me by my old familiar name;
Speak to me in the easy way you always used;
Put no difference into your tone;
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed
At the little jokes we always enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

PRAYERS

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

POEM

God Knows - popularly known as The Gate Of The Year
read by Robert, Jean's nephew

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year:
"Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown."

And he replied:

"Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God,
That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."
So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God trod gladly into the night.
And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.
