Poem

Let Me Go

by Christina Rossetti

read by Maud Beidas

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared;
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do;
Miss me, but let me go.

PRAYER

Conrad Oatey

O Lord, we thank you for Joyce and all she has given throughout her long lifetime to her family, friends and community. She was always there for everyone she met with her love, care, sense of humour and enthusiasm for life.

We now commend her to your care and safe keeping.

We pray that you will provide peace, hope, support and comfort to Harry, Sandra, David and Nigel, their families and all her friends and relatives.

Give them strength to deal with their loss, and help them reflect with thanks for all she gave in so many ways.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

CLOSING WORDS AND FINAL POEM

If I Should Go by Joyce Grenfell

David Beidas

If I should go before the rest of you,
Break not a flower, nor inscribe a stone,
Nor when I'm gone speak in a Sunday voice,
But be the usual selves that I have known.

Weep if you must -

Parting is hell,

But life goes on,

So sing as well.

Closing Music

Birdsong

Dawn Chorus

The family would like to thank everyone for their kind words and support at this sad time.
